PROGRAM DETAILS:

The Cybersecurity, and Criminology Bootcamp is a hybrid program that will take place over seven weeks. Taught at a UK Centre of Excellence in Cyber Security and the School of Business, Law, and Social Sciences at Abertay University, Scotland. The first four weeks will take place virtually and the second three weeks will take place in Dundee, Scotland. The cybersecurity portion of the program will include both cybersecurity as well as an introduction to C++ programming.

The Criminology course will provide students with an introduction to the criminal justice system and processes in Scotland and the UK with an international vantage point. It will examine how the criminal justice system operates, its key agencies and processes, as well as their relationship with the wider institutions, structures and issues in modern society allowing comparison with the US. The program will also allow weekly excursions to cultural sites around Scotland.
